Fifth Sunday of Lent Year A

Communal Celebration of Reconciliation

As we gather on this Fifth Sunday of Lent, we stand at the threshold of Holy Week - a time when the Church invites us to journey more deeply into the mystery of God's mercy and love.

Today's celebration of Communal Reconciliation is not simply a ritual; it is an encounter – a meeting.

An encounter with the One who calls us by name, as Jesus called Lazarus from the tomb, in today's Gospel saying: 'Come out.'

Those words are also spoken to each of us today.

As we begin this celebration, let us open our hearts to the mercy of God who never tires of forgiving, and who always desires to restore us to life.

Prayer

Lord Jesus, you called Lazarus from the tomb and brought him from darkness into life.

I confess that at times I have remained in the tomb of my sin, held by fear, selfishness, and indifference.

Call me again by name, Lord.

Free me from whatever binds my heart.

Roll away the stones that keep me from your life.

With trust in your mercy, I turn back to you with all my heart.

Help me to walk in the new life you give. Amen.

If Jesus raised Lazarus after four days in the grave, He can raise you out of any situation.

As we continue to celebrate 200 Years of Church Approval of the Missionary Oblates, on this Good Friday we remember St Eugene's conversion experience before the crucifix on this day in 1807.

What St. Eugene wanted to achieve was that, in Christ, each individual could become a fully complete person, an authentic Christian, a credible saint.

The Church gives us this great Bishop and Founder of the Oblates of Mary Immaculate as an example of heroic faith, hope and charity.
